Company Announcement

Date: 06 October, 2009

New GoDaddy Domain Sales Agreement

Dark Blue Sea advises that today it has entered into a new agreement with GoDaddy. This means that Dark Blue Sea again has the ability to sell its domain names through the GoDaddy sales network.

It is too early to assess the financial impact of this new agreement. The directors are pleased to have the opportunity to market the company's domain names via GoDaddy.com.
